Hornbeck, Seabulk, Abe's, Thermcor, and Yale Cordage Added to Growing FirstSource: Maritime Fleet Attendee Roster

SOUTH PORTLAND, MAINE — Five additional companies have contracted for FirstSource: Maritime Fleet in Las Vegas. Hornbeck Offshore Services, Seabulk Towing, Abe's Boat Rentals, Thermcor, Yale Cordage, have now joined the growing ranks of FirstSource: Maritime Fleet event participants.

Hornbeck Offshore Services, based in Covington, LA, is a leading provider of technologically advanced, new generation OSVs serving the offshore oil and gas industry, primarily in the U.S. Gulf of Mexico and in select international markets. Hornbeck focuses on complex exploration and production activities, which include deep-water, deep well and other logistically demanding projects, as well as tug and barge transportation of petroleum products.

Seabulk Towing, based out of Tampa, FL, specializes in harbor ship-assist operations and offshore towing services for petroleum and chemical product tankers, barges, container ships and other cargo vessels including docking and undocking and LNG terminal support services along the Gulf Coast and the southeastern seaboard.

Abe's Boat Rentals, based in Belle Chasse, LA, operates 21 offshore support crewboats and utility vessels providing gulf coast marine transportation and labor services.

Thermcor, based in Norfolk, VA, is a provider and partner within the commercial marine community for professional marine insulation applications, sound-proofing solutions, and freezer chill-box insulation.

Yale Cordage, based in Saco, ME, is a custom and specialty rope manufacturer that designs application-specific ropes, and also designs and manufactures custom and specialty rope for specialty applications such as oceanographic arrays and faired electromechanical cables.

FirstSource: Maritime Fleet will be held April 10-12, 2012 at the Riviera Hotel & Casino Las Vegas, Nevada. Participation is limited; fleet operators attend free as FirstSource guests. FirstSource: Maritime Fleet is organized by Highliner Events, which also produces the Commercial Marine Expo trade show, as well as similar hosted-buyer events across other industries.
